“ A lovely tribute for Uncle Alton

“ It was always good to talk to Alton and his twin brother Arleigh. Even though it has been years since I have seen them. After work I would drop by and say hi when he worked at Pizza Hut in Wahoo. He is joined with Uncle Oscar and Aunt Mary along with great Grandpa and Grandma Clark. Also with his twin brother (which they were both a like) and uncle Jim. I have been planning a trip back their in the next couple years and will drop by and visit all of them.

“ I will always remember how Alton's sense of humor was subtle but really packed a punch. Every conversation with Alton was experienced with the widest smile on my face waiting for what he would say next. He will be sorely missed.
