“ Im so sorry about Athena! I absolutely cant believe it. I met Athena when I was 5 years old and we lived across the street. I was playing in my front yard and a pretty dark haired girl waved me over. I had a terrible time pronouncing her name, so I called her Teeny. We became best friends. We listened to music on her record player, songs I had never heard before. She introduced me to the Bay City Rollers, and KISS. We both had a crush on Davy Jones. We tried baking cakes in her Easy Bake Oven, but the raw batter was too tempting, so we ate it first! We spent hours together, talking, laughing, being silly. We went camping with her Gramma June in her Winnebago. I remember when I accidently shut her finger in the door, and split the nail on the middle finger of her right hand. She had to wear a brace around the finger for weeks. I felt so bad, but strange thing was, I did the exact same thing to my left hand a week later! Athena thought it was pretty hilarious when I showed her at school, and all she said was 'Karma'! The years passed, and I moved away and we lost touch. But thanks to the magic of Facebook, we reconnected. I wanted so much to get together and catch up, and remember the good times, but it never happened, and now its too late. I have alot of good memories of Aurora, and they all the Athena in them. And even though I havent seen her in a long time, I will miss her. She will live forever in my heart. I love you Teeny!!
