“ Judy was my first introduction to Omaha. She offered me my first job here. It was through the art classes I taught, I got to work with her and so many other great people. She was always encouraging and supportive of me and so many others. I believed in her vision of making art accessible to others when I was an art educator and now even as a social worker. Her vision was so community centered. She talked about wanting to offer art therapy and had look for a certificate program. Arts for All is type therapy to many.

Judy was a friend to so many. Judy was an amazing lady who seemed to stay positive and continued to think of others even while she was suffering with her own illness. I admired how her passion and vision never wavered. Judy, you were a blessing to me and to so many others. Your passing is a great loss to the community. My your memory be eternal, Judy!

“ I had the privilege of working with Judy for five years as a teacher for Arts for All. She was a true entrepreneur, full of ideas and vision and full of life. Her passion for the arts and her passion for living a positive life in spite of her struggles with cancer has been a great inspiration to me. I am very sad at her passing and wish the family all the comfort that comes from knowing what a beautiful art-filled life she now has with Jesus: the music of the angels and the artistic beauty of heaven. All the best! Mike Zehnder
