“ Any time I think of Mark, this is one of the first images that pops into my mind! Always there to love and support all of his Johnson and “Other” Johnson children! He was always so incredibly proud of his family! Loved to laugh, tell stories and took a genuine interest in those around him. Thank you for sharing him with us!

“ So sorry for your loss. Mark was a neighbor growing up and a classmate at Prep. Always so kind. A gentle giant. I know it has been a hard road for your family. I pray you can find peace and comfort knowing Mark is in a better place.

I sent a memorial gift to L&LS.

“ Mark was a big strapping softie of a fifth grade teacher. He always had a smile and was willing to help in every way. His classroom was very neat and organized. He met the love of his life right there at Springville. They were the cliché tall man, petite girl couple. Their wedding at St. John's was beautiful and the reception at Joslyn was amazing. We missed seeing him patrol the halls when he moved on to pharmaceutical sales. We ran into him once at our doctor's office. We only kept in contact through Christmas cards (that's how we watched their family grow). We know that he is with the Lord and in peace. Blessings to all of his family. Love and Hugs,

“ Courageous, inspiring, dedicated, kind, witty, and caring are just a few of the words which immediately make me think of Mark Johnson. During the time Mark and I worked together (about the last 8 years), I've learned much from and about Mark. While Mark battled cancer for many years, it did not define him. In fact, most people Mark worked with or supported never knew of his medical challenges.

To Jennifer, thank you for sharing your husband's gifts with us and understanding when he worked too much and could have been with you and the family.

To Amanda, Jake, Jessica and Makenzie, thanks for sharing your Dad with us. His biggest smiles and proudest moments came sharing your successes with his co-workers. He was immensely proud of each of you.

To Mark, you made us better. Love you bud.

“ Mark came into our lives over 27 years ago after our daughter told us about a fellow teacher who loved “child like “ pranks.He , to get her attention,rearranged her classroom just before teacher/parent meetings , (lucky for him he put it all back in place )Little did we know our lives were all changed that day.Their beautiful wedding at St. John’s was only surpassed by the birth of their amazing four children and the tremendous amount of ongoing strength,compassion,dedication and faith as they carried each other to the most difficult moment of their lives.His love of the beauty , innocence and wonder of children was seen in many ways, but will forever be forever sealed in my heart as he sat at the kids table last weekend.After his family gathered to be with him.Sitting in his wheelchair,for what would become his last meal.With smiling faces of the littlest listening to his stories and he taking time to listen to them.Admiring their joy, and surrounding himself with the future. Our lives were “rearranged “on Wednesday, and will never be the same.He left a 6 ft 9 hole in our hearts. We pray that the tremendous example of Marks legacy will help his family,his nieces, nephews,,brothers in law,f fiends and anyone who ever met him, to take the next step.Peace

“ Mark was one of my first managers in the pharmaceutical industry many years ago. He set the standard on what that should look like. I only worked with him for a few years, but his compassion, kindness, love for his family always stuck with me. I am saddened by this news. Prayers to all of his family and friends.

“ Rest In Peace dear friend. You were a kind and gentle soul. The love, respect and compassion you gave my mom when she was with us was one of your strongest traits. I am sure she greeted you with open arms when you entered heavens gates.

“ I remember moving to Omaha and seeing you guys at your Cottonwood house, so young and excited about your new little family. That photo on Jake's post brought it all back . I'm so glad you all got as many years as you did with Mark. He was a good man and I'm sorry his time was cut short. I wish I could help with your grief, but I know that's a personal thing for each of you. Know you are in my prayers. Love, Molly

“ There's no doubt in my mind that Mark was a Gentle Giant that God placed on this earth. He was the leader of his family, an amazing husband and father despite everything that he was going through. He was a pillar of life, and a pillar of love to his family and one heck of an example of strength and perseverance for us all. Prayers of comfort to Jenni, his children and all that knew him. I will never forget his ominous presence matched only by his ominous kindness. He and his family will always have a place in my heart. Much Prayer, Much Peace, Much Comfort.

“ Our hearts are broken. Our time on Shirley street is filled with wonderful memories of Mark. I feel like I can hear the basketball dribbling even as I write this. May all the best memories come rushing in now, I pray they bring a smile and that peace soon follows. Mark is already missed beyond measure!! Much love, the Bealle Family
