“ *Dear family, So sorry to hear about Alan. We were at the Cattlemen's Ball in Kearney when we heard about his death. Don't we always wonder, "Lord, why?" My husband John said he was a nice guy--never heard a bad word out of his mouth! May God flood you with His peace and be your comfort. Former feed customers, “ Teri and family,

I was shocked and saddened to hear of Allen's passing when Mom called on Saturday evening. Allen was a very driven man with so much energy and always wanting the very best. I know my Dad appreciated him very much and considered a very good friend. He will be greatly missed. I was always impressed that he always asked where I was, what I was doing, and how my family was. He was truly a special man. Keep God close to you at the difficult time.

“ Although I never know Allen, I would like to send my heartfelt condolence. We have all lost loved ones and so I can sympathize with your sorrow. What helps me is to know God cares about the pain we feel. Psalms 56:8 says he collects all our tears and preserves them in his bottle. He promises to soon wipe away all the tears from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) It is my wish you will find comfort and hope in the promises from God's Word and in the good memories you have.

“ To the family and loved ones of Al Borhart...Although I know none of you, I offer my deepest sympathy and condolences for the loss of one of the finest men I have ever known. Al (or Hobie as he was fondly known as) and I lived together for a couple of years at FarmHouse Fraternity at the University of Illinois. If I remember correctly, he was our 'pledge trainer'. He was also elected 'social chairman' for the fraternity...most likely because he was ALWAYS smiling and laughing. He was everybody's friend. I regret that we lost track of each other and that I was not a part of his circle of friends in later life. I know you all miss him. Please be comforted by knowing that his smile is pointed downward toward all of you in this very difficult time...sadly, Jerry Wallace
