

Aldythe Karrow

September 9, 1929 - December 26, 2024

Aldythe Christine (Granlund) Karrow was born on September 9, 1929 in Nelson, MN to Edward Reuben Granlund and Minnie Theresa (Linder) Granlund. She grew up on a farm outside of Nelson. After graduating High School she moved to Alexandria, MN working as a bookkeeper, where she met Freddie. They were married September 30, 1950 and were blessed with two daughters: Pamela Ann and Patsy Christine.

Freddie was in the trucking industry working in the office and was transferred to NE, CA, WI, IA, IN. Aldythe set up home for her family with each transfer. Aldythe was involved in the church and really enjoyed teaching Sunday school and bible study. As a couple Freddie and Aldythe bowled, golfed, and danced and meeting wonderful friends! Upon retiring they moved to Valley, NE to be near their families spending more time with their grandchildren, becoming a member of United Faith Community Church, Valley.

Aldythe passed away December 26, 2024 resting quietly in her bed at Valley Lakes Assisted Living knowing she was loved. She is preceded in death by her husband Freddie, brothers: Lester, Norman, Eugene, and Roger Granlund and sister JoAnn Soderholm.

Aldythe is survived by her daughters and sons-in-law Pam and Mike Stratman, Patsy and Mike Steinbach; grandchildren: Nikki (Henry) Kingham, Bryan (April) Cambell, Jason (Angie) Steinbach, Jessica (Chad) Morrison all of Valley, Tara Wright and Tara (Mark) Krepela of Elkhorn, 16 great grandchildren and 2 great great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be from 1-2:30pm at Reichmuth Funeral Home in Elkhorn, followed by family service with Aldythe's celebration of life.

In Lieu of Flowers, Family suggests memorials to The United Faith Community Church in Valley, NE.
