“ To the family

Words cannot expressed how deeply sorry I am for your lost. It brings sadness in my heart when I hear another individual has fallen asleep in death. But from what I know is that we have a loving God whose name is Jehovah. (Psalms 83:18). Jehovah God loves us all and He also suffered the same amount of pain and sadness that you are all experiencing.

But one thing that Jehovah God can do that we cannot is bring back our love ones. John 5: 28, 29 says: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."

Yes, Jehovah will send his son Jesus Christ to resurrect all our loves ones where we all can live on a paradise earth forever! Please, don't think this is just a mere fantasy dream. Jehovah will carry this out. He is a God of love. (1 John 4:8)

I know the pain still hurts but please, keep Jehovah God close to you to help you endure. I've attached an online tract from our website jw.org called "Can the Dead Really Live Again?" with scriptural information to support that question. This information and more could hopefully help you as you grieve. Again, I'm sorry for your lost; Please feel free to reach out if possible.

My condolences to the family.

“ I cannot say I knew Allison well, but I did go to high school with her (one year behind) and it's always saddening to hear of the passing of someone you knew. My fellow Bennington alumni and I will miss her. Rest In Peace, Allison, and my most heartfelt condolences to your loved ones.
