“ *Aunt Kathy, Uncle Lee, and Matt & Alaina,
We are so sorry for your family and our whole family for this loss. It is so sad and just hard to understand. I have many great memories of Andy at family gatherings and will always remember him that way. The kids all liked playing cards with Andy. I remember him as the ring bearer in my wedding, the best man in Matt's wedding, and can't believe I will never see him in his own wedding. I know God has got to have a reason for taking someone so young and full of potential, and we will never understand why Andy, but please believe he is in a better & safer place now. Please rely on the support of your family & friends now during this difficult time, and hang in there. We will see you on Friday. Love, Sharise, Dan, Brandon, Kelsey, Ashley, & Jake Scherer*

“ Dear Kathy, Lee, Matt and Alaina, We are so sorry for your loss - you are all in our thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. I have so many cherished family memories of Andy growing up, and of your family through the years. He will be greatly missed as he is gone all too soon. Lots of love, support, and caring thoughts are being sent your way. We will see you on Friday. We love you all, Shandra, Chad, Chloe, Chase and Cade.
