“ I can't believe it has been a year since Ann died. I will always remember the fun we had playing golf with our dads. She was such a nice gal and treated her dad like a King...I always loved that about her! I pray that she is reunited with her mom and dad and hitting the little white ball in the heavens!!

“ What a wonderful and energetic soul Ann was; she treated everyone with the same amount of respect. She was captivating in her story-telling. To lose someone like Ann is a real tragedy. God bless you Ann.

“ I was so sad to hear about Ann. She was so good to Dick and my dad, Paul Schneider. He could never say enough about Ann! I will be forever grateful to her for that. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family at this time.

“ It was a privilege to meet and spend time with Ann. She was a woman of deep faith and showed immense courage in handling the end stages of her disease. My favorite memory will be the last time I sat with her in the hospital. She was sleeping comfortably and did not 'awaken' during my visit, but I am hopeful that as I recited scripture, sang hymns, recited the Rosary and the Our Father, sang the Ave Maria, offered prayers of thanksgiving for her life and placed my hand upon her head for a final blessing, that she received some comfort. I also want to express my sincere admiration to her brother and wife for opening their home and their hearts to Ann. May God comfort you all.

“ Dick and Janet: I'm sorry for your loss. She looked so much like Dick, it was uncanny. May she find peace in heaven.

“ Ann, My beloved friend and colleague: I will cherish our friendship and remember all the good times we had together along with the long, serious discussions on life. The luncheon we had in Valley when you picked me up in your truck at the YMCA and showed me your new place. That's how I'll remember our last gathering. You mean alot to me and I wish you all the peace and happiness. You helped me through "thick and thin" no matter what and I will never forget. May the beautiful angels watch over you. I can just see it now...you'll have your own swimming pool, top of the line! Jules
