“ Oh, how I will miss our Iowa State conversations, my dear Ann. I had my bucket filled every Sunday when I played the organ. She always made me feel like I was the best organist in Omaha. Guess she had a great sense of humor.

I think of all the children and parents that benefitted from her dietary advice, making sure they knew how to qualify for government programs to provide nutritious meals.

It's hard for me to imagine Elkhorn's Hills without Roger and Ann sitting in the back of the sanctuary.

Sincere sympathy to Roger, sons, daughter-in-laws and grandchildren. I will miss her so.
