

Anthony Francis Bieker

July 15, 1975 - March 23, 2018

Anthony Francis Bieker was born on July 15, 1975 in Scott AirForce Base, Illinois to Francis and Sheila (Wiesner) Bieker. He grew up in Belleville where he attended Cathedral grade school and graduated from Balboa High School in Panama in 1993 before attending Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas. As a young boy, Tony enjoyed baseball, fishing, basketball and weight lifting.

Tony married Lindsay Thomas on March 3, 2012 at Indian Creek Country Club in Elkhorn, Nebraska. They welcomed their son Jax in 2016 and were anxiously awaiting the birth of their little girl Kruz. Tony and Lindsay have made their home in Omaha.

Tony and Lindsay ran their own Insurance Adjusting business. He enjoyed staying in shape and working out. Tony loved the ocean, boating, spending time at their cabin, traveling to new places and spending time with his family, especially Jax. He loved politics, staying abreast of current events, debating on Facebook and watching Fox News. Tony was genuine, extremely generous, and a very hard-working man. He was a great husband and father that took care of his family and was looking forward to being a family of 4. Tony had a very optimistic outlook on life. His favorite quote was, "The glass is half full."

“ One of my fondest memories with Tony was paddling like crazy across the lake at Camp Ondessonk together in a canoe. We had to overtake two other teams that had beaten us into the water; we yelled and screamed at each other the whole way and finally passed the other teams to clinch the Golden Arrowhead for our unit. I don't think either of us had ever been as excited as we were at that moment. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Tony was a great childhood friend while we attended Cathedral Grade School. I have fond memories of weekend sleepovers and time on the baseball diamond. I had always hoped to reconnect, perhaps at a class reunion. Though we have not communicated in years, my heart was deeply saddened to learn of his passing. I pray for his family, particularly his wife and children. May you Rest In Peace, friend. — Brandon Woodrome

“ I was greatly shocked to hear that Tony was no longer with us. I was struck with disbelief and continued to check to see if it was just some hoax on the web. When I finally accepted the reality, I started to think about Tony and what I loved about him.

Tony always was real with me. He did not sugar coat anything. He helped me through some of my darkest times being himself, very caring and direct. That directness is what I loved about him. He was always great friend to me and I could always count on him when it was needed.

I will miss the ridiculous hours spent in the gym to make our calves look normal.

Good conversations, enjoying each others successes and families.

Making fun of each others short comings and helping to realize that they really were not that important in the first place.

He will be missed but I am happy to have had the time I did with such a great person.

“ We met tony in Cancun on our yearly trip to Mexico. My husband and I marveled at his physique and Lindsey's too..they are the most gorgeous people, inside and out! We saw them a few times but didn't strike up conversation. Until one day I was in the pool and some random guy saw him and said, "I wonder which team he plays for," to that I replied, "oh he's straight, he has a beautiful wife!" To my embarrassment he was referring to an actual sports team.....I was so embarrassed. Fast forward that same day my husband and I run into them, And my husband randomly says, "tell him what you said earlier about him to the guy in the pool....I shared the story with Lindsey and tony and we laughed about it. We ended up hanging out more on the trip and realized we had a lot in common. We have been in touch through FB the last couple of years. I have seen their lovely family grow and the happiness in their lives. One thing I know for certain is how much he loved his family, I pray for strength for Lindsay. I will not forget tony, he was part of one of the best trips of our lives. We will miss him terribly.
