“ I pray that Melody, Laura and Brodeaux find a way to go on and that one day they each smile just because. I hope they smile because they know Tony knew he was loved, of course he knows it. Mel, you are the best mom and all of your (our) kids will tell you that, Tony is shaking his head "yes" as you read this, he must be. Laura, you are a wonderful big sister, I've seen it and so do the brodeaux's, both of them will love you forever. Andrew, our hearts go out to you, especially to you. I don't have the words, Andrew, maybe nobody does. We all love you and you must, please, always remember that. Our tears are for the love we have for Tony.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Alan Sheppard, Tony's father and family. I knew Tony for a short time but feel like I knew him for a lifetime. He was kind and giving. He would help anyone that needed help. He loved his kids a lot. He would talk about them every time I talked to him. He wasn't afraid to live life to the fullest. I loved that quality about him. In his short time here with us he lived more than anyone I know. He was a son, brother, friend and father. Thank you for being my friend for a lifetime. We love you Tony.

“ I remember when the kids were little. Anthony and Andrew would roll around like two magnets stuck together, while Laura would tell them to stop it! Or they'd be at my house, and I'd give them a brownie, cuz Laura was a girl, and Tony and Drew were twins. And I remember and know how much they were, and are, loved. Tony will be missed very much, by everyone who was lucky enough to ever meet him.

“ My oldest memory of Tony happened when Laura and I first became friends more than 12 years ago. Laura and I had a cheerleading competition and the next day Tony handed me a note. In the note, Tony told me how much he "liked" me and that I was hot in my cheerleading uniform. He didn't even go to the competition! I think that personifies the type of person Tony was- bold, caring, and driven to get what he wanted. Tony lived a great deal in his 24 years and left behind more love than most people can do in a lifetime. He will be missed by so many people. I don't know why this had to happen so soon and so suddenly, but I know that Tony is looking over you everyday.

Love,

Becky
