“ When Rick & I were looking for a townhome at Camden Grove, he was the one that called to tell us it was for sale. He was very friendly, Rick and I loved talking with him every time we had a chance as we sat outside in the afternoon and he walked up to get their mail he would always stop to visit. They both treated us like family and after Rick passed he and Lorraine became very close to me and watched out for me. He would always ask me if I got a check in the mail and of course we would say not this time. We had lots of laughs with him and will miss him terribly but he is with the Lord visiting with everyone in heaven. Rest in peace dear friend. I will keep an eye on your sweet wife. God Bless!
