“ I was one who was invited into the home of Phil and Barb on many occasions. I have fond memories of them and can not tell you how many laughs we had. I was a client also of Phil and to this day my investments are paying dividends. I know it is late but only now have I found out of Barbs passing. What a grand, caring friend. I knew the children and am proud to here ther are doing great. Ryan appears to have found true happiness still chasing that little white ball down a fairway. My truly best to all three.

“ When I called Barbara in 2006 for information about Ervin Pudenz she was so very, very kind. The information she gave me was invaluable and I shall be forever grateful. I was saddened to learn of her passing.
