“ I work for Home Instead and have only known Barbara for a month. In that short time we had several light hearted and some serious conversations. She was making plans for us to go shopping and driving around to show me where her children lived and I wanted to show her where I live and previous homes. She was a delight and we shared some laughs and some tears. I too lost a son so we shared that painful experience knowing she lost a son and a grandson. My last day with Barbara she had me make some peanut butter cookies which she was hungry for. I was planning on working for her the day she passed away. I'm sorry I didn't get to say goodbye, but feel privileged to have known her. Rest in peace sweet Barbara.
