

Barbara Gayle Hagge

July 5, 1939 - July 25, 2024

Barbara Gayle Hagge, affectionately known as Barb, was born in Loup City, NE, to Warren and Alma Anthoney. Barb grew up in a loving family, as one of six children - her only brother, Vernon, and four sisters, Marilyn, Susan, Eileen, and Deborah. Her parents ran a hatchery and later, her father became an electrician. Barb cherished her childhood home, her parents, and the time spent in their garden, and helping at the family hatchery.

Barb met her husband, Larry, who was a client of the answering service she worked for. Together, they built a life filled with cherished memories that included traveling with close friends and spending time with family. Barb and Larry were blessed with five children: Randy, Marty, Vickie, Laurie, and Tracy.

Family was at the heart of Barb's life, and she treasured the traditions of Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, where she welcomed family, friends, and others to join in these celebrations.

Barb dedicated over 50 years to her career at Roberts Dairy. In her free time, Barb enjoyed Word Search puzzles, reading the newspaper, and watching HGTV design shows. She loved romance novels and had a special talent for cooking. She was known particularly for her potato salad and lemon bars. Her home was always filled with family; grandchildren and great-grandchildren being regular visitors.

Barb's personality was characterized by her wicked sense of humor, often sarcastic and a bit naughty at times. She had a formidable presence, with strong willpower, determination, and a heart full of love. She was selfless, giving, and always put her family first.

She was a member of Bethany Lutheran Church in Elkhorn, NE, and demonstrated her values through hard work, dedication to family, and unwavering perseverance.

Barb faced significant challenges in her life, including the loss of a child. Even when faced with declining health, she found a way to keep moving forward.

Her proudest accomplishments were her children, ten grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren, who brought her immense joy. Barb's legacy will be marked by the positive difference that her family makes as they move forward in their lives, based on what they learned from her as a role model.

Barb will be remembered for her dedication to family and friends, her work ethic, and her unconditional love. She made others feel special and always made time for calls, texts, and visits. Her humor and love will be missed by all who knew her.

Even in her final hours, she found the strength to tell loved ones, "Love you. Bye-bye", leaving them with a lasting reminder of her love and perseverance. She will be deeply missed and it was, and always will be, a privilege to have been a part of her life.

Barbara passed away on July 25, 2024 in Omaha, NE. Barbara is preceded in death by her parents, Warren and Alma Anthoney, daughter, Laurie Reynolds. She is survived by her husband, Larry, children, Randy Hagge, Marty (Pam)

Hagge, Vickie (Rick) Sullivan, and Tracy (Mary) Hagge, 10 Grandchildren, and 10 Great Grandchildren.

In Lieu of flowers, family suggests memorials to Bethany Lutheran Church or to the family for later designation.

“ My memory of Barb is from many years ago at a Junck (Larry's family on his mother's side) Thanksgiving gathering. I brought my baby daughter, Lauren, who was about 5 weeks old. Barb took Lauren to hold her, and Lauren slept on her shoulder for a nap lasting as least 2 hours. She seemed happy to hold a baby and as a frazzled new mother, I was happy for the break.
Condolences from Bryan and I to the whole family.
