“ To the family

Words cannot expressed how deeply sorry I am for your lost. It brings sadness in my heart when I hear another individual has fallen asleep in death. But from what I know is that we have a loving God whose name is Jehovah. (Psalms 83:18). Jehovah God loves us all and He also suffered the same amount of pain and sadness that you are all experiencing.

But one thing that Jehovah God can do that we cannot is bring back our love ones. John 5: 28, 29 says: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."

Yes, Jehovah will send his son Jesus Christ to resurrect all our loves ones where we all can live on a paradise earth forever! Please, don't think this is just a mere fantasy dream. Jehovah will carry this out. He is a God of love. (1 John 4:8)

I know the pain still hurts but please, keep Jehovah God close to you to help you endure. I've attached an online tract from our website jw.org called "Can the Dead Really Live Again?" with scriptural information to support that question. This information and more could hopefully help you as you grieve. Again, I'm sorry for your lost; Please feel free to reach out if possible.

My condolences to the family.

“ Dear Joe, Christina, & Tom,
Sympathy to all of you. Bianca was a good friend to my mom Sheila. I always enjoyed visiting with your mom and hearing stories of her growing up in Italy.

Lots of good memories.

“ I was Bianca and Joe's neighbor for basically my entire life until I went off to college! I grew up in the house next to them in Hastings, NE and have fond memories of Bianca outside tending to her garden, driving around the neighborhood and playing with her dog Lindsey (who bit me one day on the arm, HAH!) Bianca was an incredible woman, and I always enjoyed waving to her and chatting with her. My prayers and condolences are with the Ballweg family!
