“ Bonnie may have been my mother in-law by law from 1991 until 2003 but she always held that title to me. I will always remember her laugh. I will never forget when she and Grandpa John watched Shelby and Haley when they were very young and Bonnie decided Shelby needed bangs so she cut Shelby's hair. Oh man that was a shock. I also giggle at the memory of our family white elephant Christmas party when she did not follow the rules (I don't think she understood them) and she stood up and stole someone's present. The look on everyone's face was priceless. Bonnie did not bear children but she helped raise two kids, four grandchildren and at the time two great grandchildren. She could be a stinker of a grandma at times but I was grateful for the times she was there for each of them. John and Bonnie took my son in as their grandson and his kids as their great grandchildren and I appreciate the love they shared with all of them. Bonnie Jean may you rest in peach, rejoice with John and Praise your Lord in Heaven.
