

Brett Keith DeLine

April 14, 1960 - January 23, 2021

On Saturday January 23rd, 2021, at his home on the lake near Leshara, NE, Brett gave up his courageous battle of cancer. His loving wife, Linda was with him till the end.

Brett loved playing cribbage with his wife and loved time in his shop with his son Josh and stepsons Nick & Alex. He was a wonderful caring son to his mom Patricia Walker.

Brett served in the US army and had a long career with the Ironworkers. He also served as president of the Niagara County Motorcycle Club and is a lifetime member.

Brett lived life to the fullest and was happiest when he was riding his Harley, 4 wheeling on the river, spending time with his dogs and cat, and tipping back a few beers with friends. He will be missed by many.

He is preceded in death by his: sister, Chrissy DeLine. Brett is survived by: his wife, Linda DeLine of Leshara; parents, Patricia Walker of Olcott, NY, and Francis (Christine) DeLine of Cambria, NY; son, Joshua DeLine of Blair, NE; step-sons, Nicholas (Toni) Slayden and Alexander Slayden all of Omaha, NE; five step grandchildren; brothers, Frank (Freida) DeLine of Olcott, NY, Morris (Barb) DeLine of Burt, NY, Nelson (Colleen) DeLine of Appleton, NY and Nathan (Jen) Deline of Wilson, NY; and a sister, Mary Jane (Bob) Wilcox of

Wilson, NY

Memorial graveside services will be held at a later date at North Ridge Cemetery in Cambria, NY. Reichmuth Funeral Home of Elkhorn, NE is caring for Brett and his family at this time. Memorial offerings can be made to Save-A-Pet - PO Box 114 Newfane, NY 14108 or American Cancer Society

“ So many memories of the good times we had! Playing cards, floating around on the boat at night, 4th of July parties, the night everyone made Tom let me bring my Sammi puppy home..... And how much I admired the deep love, respect and real friendship between Brett and Linda!!!! I will always be grateful that 2 upstate New Yorkers ended up meeting in the tiny town of Leshara, Ne!!!
