“ To the family. I am very sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is painful. 1Cor.15:26 calls death an 'enemy' and says that it will be 'destroyed.' I find Jesus' promise at John 5:28-29 very comforting. I share it with you and pray that it will also give you some comfort. May precious memories also help ease your sorrow.

“ Brian was always part of our family - My son's best friend since they were little boys. So glad we got together for dinner just a few months ago - I will miss his beautiful, wonderful smile and his great hugs. I cannot imagine the heartbreak his family is feeling. Brian will always have a special place in my heart and I'll miss him terribly.

“ Larry & Diane,

We are so sorry to hear of your loss. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you in this time of grief. We sure wish we could be there with you, to lend extra strength and support during such sad time; but please take comfort knowing that we will keep close to our hearts and in our thoughts and prayers until we can get together and see you after we return from Dallas.

“ Brian, will be missed so very much. Grandma Fast will miss his daily calls and telling her how much he loved her. He left us way to early but I get chills thinking of Dad/Grandpa Fast waiting at the East Gate welcoming you to Heaven.

“ Brian's life on earth may have been short, but the memories we cherish in our hearts shall remain, everlasting.

God, full of mercy who dwells on high; Grant perfect rest on the wings of Your Divine presence. In the lofty heights of the holy and pure who shine as the brightness of the heavens on Brian's soul.

Thank you lord, for your grace, your forgiveness, and your uncompromising love. I pray for my cousin, all his family & friends including the daughter he leaves behind, his mom, Kathy and his sisters, Heather and Angie that survive him.
