“ I’m sure that no one in Carol Family would remember me but I did work with her at Woolco mAny many many years ago. I remember her as having a smile on her face all the time I always wondered what happened to her after we all left woolco . What time takes us all in different directions. I do know that one of her daughters lived down the street from my house which was my stepdad’s house in Valley. Prayers to your family

“ Carol, I knew we would be buddies the first day I met you. I loved and treasure our time together. We would fill our days with stories, Soaps and sewing...what could be better! It was always touching watching work away on your next crochet masterpiece, even though your back and hands would ache, you were determined to get them done. Your beautiful blankets and doilies were such gifts of love. I love and miss you but it makes me happy to think of the beautiful reunion you are having with all your loved ones. Love you my friend.

“ Carol I'm happy your not in pain anymore. I'm sad to watch and be amazed at your talent for crocheting your many blankets, pillow cases, douleys etc. You were a talented woman with so many stories of your past! You will be greatly missed by everyone. Thank you for sharing so many videos and photos of your family and great grandchildren with me you were so proud of them!

It was such a joy to get to know Carol over the last couple of years. I always enjoyed talking to her about her family and the crochet pattern she was working on. She will be deeply missed.
