

Carolyn Sue Brackmann

June 26, 1938 - December 27, 2010

Sue Brackmann, age 72, of Bennington, NE, died 12-27-10. Preceded in death by grandson Jonathan Newton. Survived by children Jim (Sharon) Brackmann of Columbus, OH, Janet Tate of Omaha, Jerald Brackmann of Bennington, JoAnn (Tim) Barmettler of Omaha, 10 Grandchildren, 4 sisters, 3 brothers.

Memorial service Monday, 1/3/11, at 3PM at the funeral home. Private interment at Prospect Hill Cemetery. No visitation. Memorials to the family.

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn Sue Brackmann

December 10, 2022 at 09:12 AM

“ We will really miss Sue. She fought a good fight and now she is with her Lord.

She is having a reunion with those who went before her. Isn't it great to know that we will see her again someday. God bless you all in a special way as you struggle going through the next few months of her absence. She left behind great memories. We will miss her at the next class reunion, but there will be a happy reunion in the sky someday! Love, Roger & Lucy Schmidt

Roger Schmidt & Lucy - January 04, 2011 at 10:14 PM

“ Jim, Janet, Jerry and JoAnn,

I'm so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. Keeping and sharing memories of her will hopefully ease the pain of your loss and keep her close to your hearts. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. Love to all,

Laurie Lowe Newsham

Laurie Lowe Newsham - January 03, 2011 at 12:39 AM

NA

“ I was so sorry to hear about Sue. Seems like she lived a full life. And I am sure your family has many wonderful memories of her. At times like this the Bible comforts me so much. John 11:11-44 shows when Jesus resurrected Lazarus. Jesus said that Lazarus was just sleeping and then he resurrected him. He was showing what he would do on a grand scale soon. Jesus said in John 5:28&29 there would come a time when those in the memorial tombs would hear his voice and come out. This would also be at a time when Revelation 21:3&4 says there will be no more tears, pain or death. This would all happen when God's Kingdom comes, the same kingdom that Jesus taught us to pray for in the Lord's Prayer. What a wonderful prospect for Sue and all those in the memorial tombs now. We express our deepest sympathy. We hope you find comfort in this time of loss.

Naomi - January 02, 2011 at 07:58 PM

TL

“ Hi Brackmann gang. I'm sorry I won't be able to attend the funeral (at least as of this writing), so I thought I'd pass on some brief thoughts here.

I'm truly sorry for the loss you suffered with Aunt Sue's passing. She was always a delightful person to be around (as are her children). I truly look forward to the times we are able to manage to run into each other (Lord knows with the size of our family, it takes days just to re-learn who's who when the opportunity presents itself! LOL!).

With the battles Aunt Sue has had the last few years, I'm glad she was able to have some enjoyable times like going to Arizona with my mother. Sounds like it was a great time for all.

I'd offer to pray for you all like so many others do, but coming from me I don't think it would do you much good! Ha! So, instead I will just offer my heart felt condolences to you all, and wish you well in the future. I will miss my Aunt Sue.

Here's to hoping this sad time turns into happy memories for you all in short order.

Until we meet again..... take care.

Sincerely,

Tony Lowe

Tony Lowe - January 01, 2011 at 06:51 PM

AP

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you and your families at this time. It has been many years but your mom was the type of person you could never forget because she was so special and loved by so many.

Angie Harder Polinski - January 01, 2011 at 12:30 PM

JW

“ Hi, You don't know me, but I was from Ayrshire, and a classmate of Linda's, and knew Sue. Always loved her laugh. It was contagious. My sympathy goes to her family. Judy Weis

Judy Conlon Weis - December 31, 2010 at 09:42 PM

LT

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all during the difficult time. Sue was wonderful woman and a great caregiver to our nations veterans. She was loved by everyone who knew her. She is at peace now and one of Gods Angels.

Lynda Turner - December 31, 2010 at 07:21 PM

JK

“ Jim, Janet, Jerry, Joann --You probably don't remember me but years ago you lived in my neighborhood and your Mom and I were very good friends. She was such a special loving person and so much fun to be around. Between you kids and your German Shepherds she was kept really busy but she always had time to coffee and could she ever bake -- she made the best bread and rolls. I really missed her when you moved away but we did run into each other occasionally. I am so sorry for you loss and want to let you know that she will be missed. God bless all of you.

Joan Krula - December 30, 2010 at 01:04 PM

JM

“ Janet and Joanne, We are so sorry for your loss, you are in our thoughts and prayers. God bless and comfort the Brockmann family.
John Morrissey

John Morrissey - December 29, 2010 at 08:19 PM