“ I was lucky to get to know my cousins growing up. I spent many nights with Cathy and Norman. I dearly loved Cathy's mom Dorothy. She was the best Aunt. She sure loved Cathy and Norman. My mom, Helen (Uhing) Barr was Cathy's Godmother. Hold on to your memories Rhonde! Thinking of all of you.

“ Cathy and I shared many good times as children and young adults. I remember riding our bikes together, playing cards, and just enjoying sharing time together at each other’s houses. Many great family memories! She was a fun, kind, hard-working, caring person who left us too young! She will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to Rhondel and family and to Norm. Love you all.

“ Rhondel, I'm so sorry for your loss of your mom. She was very much loved here at work and what a small world that I got to work with both her and you. Take care. Mick Wagoner

“ I had the pleasure to meet this adorable lady, named Cathy. Cathy and I used to walk around downtown every lunch break. Since we were not wealthy, touring downtown by foot was our goal and pleasure. We would go at the Omaha Visitor Center to check out places we can walk to. And we took maps with us and brought apples for lunch. We went from architectural to art, to foodie, and murals. Along the way are stories we shared. We tried different flavors of cookies, and ice cream. We both didn't have the same taste. We also took the same bus going home. And got to know the same people that took the same bus at the same time. It made work so much fun! And we did argue too. But, at the end of the day, we said our goodbyes. As the next working day, we start with "Good Morning."

I say "Goodbye" for now, as we shall meet again in time. Rest in Peace my friend. You will be missed.

*Love Always;
