“ I was listing agent on the house the family bought when they moved to Freeland Michigan. Dave and I talked at the closing and learned we had daughters the same age and we were neighbors! Devon and Jordan became quick friends and are still best friend today. The day I met Cathy I knew she was going to be a friend. My favorite memory with her was the evening she called and said she needed help with a project. She brought all the parts and pieces to a neighbors house and we worked for hours assembling the famous leg lamp from A Christmas Story! So many laughs and a few drinks in..we did it! She was so proud to give it to Dave! He immediately placed it on their front window for the entire neighborhood to enjoy. I've missed you and I'm so sad we didn't have more time together Cathy. May you RIH and spread your humor.

“ I only met Cathleen one time, at the Mexican restaurant here in Nevada, MO...She made me laugh. The Ravers being huge Huskers fans, she made a joke about the KU shirt I was wearing. The ribbing went back and forth between us as Dave sat quietly giving an occasional head shake That memory brings a smile to my face to this day, of the woman I didn't know, but whose sense of humor I greatly appreciated. God bless you Dave, prayers for you and your family.
