“ I will miss our daily talks. Cecila was truly an amazing woman. I feel it an honor to say I knew her and call her my friend! Heaven gained a true angel!

“ I have learned a lot from this extremely strong and loving woman.
These this things and the many moments we shared together will forever be carried with me until I see her again. Love you Cele and don't forget it.

“ What can you say about a person who took on very real challenges every single day but still forged a life? That takes a special kind of bravery. Cele was the thoughtful communicator who kept the network of cousins in touch with each other. She had many interests and loved beautiful things. She and her brothers and sisters showed the rest of us a real life lesson in how to stay close and connected.
