“ My condolences to the family. When loosing a loved one it can be unbearable. That is why God has provided scriptures in the Bible to help ones cope with sudden losses. In the Bible book of Isaiah 25:8 Jehovah God promises soon to "swallow up death forever." He also promises to bring back those who have fallen asleep in death (Acts 24:15). In a little while longer this kind of pain will be a thing of the past (Revelations 21:4). May these scriptures, along with the beautiful memories, bring you comfort in this difficult time.Â

“ Jan, I'm so sorry to hear about Chase's passing--such an awful thing and at such a young age. My condolences to you and your family, and also to Tank. I remember the cute pictures you sent. And, I think of you often, whenever I see something on FaceBook.

“ Dear Kruse family,

I am deeply sorry to hear about the loss of Chase. I would like to extend my sympathies to you.

I remember Chase as a hilarious and confident guy. He enjoyed doing these impressions/voices which made me crack up every time I heard them. I have a lot of respect for him for doing Juicy J's rap from "Dark Horse"; for what I remember as either the Mr. Storm competition or the talent show our senior year of high school. That took confidence & composure to stand in front of a full auditorium and rock the rap.

May God bless you in this difficult time.

“ I will always remember how positive Chase was and how fun he was to be around. He was always the quickest guy on the basketball court and I am going to miss him deeply. I will be saying some prayers and cannot imagine how hard this loss must be on the family.

“ I am deeply saddened to here of the loss of Chase. I remember what a special person chase was when he was born in California and how we all were so happy of his birth. I remember how everyone loved Chase through the years and how people would say he couldn't do things and he did them. To Jan, Dave and Amanda I am so sorry, I send my love and cherish all the good times
God Bless you

“ I can not begin to imagine the depth of sorrow and grief you are feeling. Numb to the core. Chase had a contagious smile, a larger than life charisma, passionate ambition and excitement beyond measure. He stopped at our house a short time ago and beamed as he spoke of you, Jan, when I asked how you were doing. He laughed when talking about his nephew and enlightened us with his dreams and intentions. No words can heal the shattered hearts you all have but may the memories remain vivid and the Chase imprints leave a life long impact. Chase lived full out. A blessing or a curse? Don't think he would have wanted or enjoyed it, any other way.
Fondly, Julie

“ I'll never forget the way Chase could illuminate a room with the flash of his bright, beautiful smile or the sound of his laughter. I'm sorry this happened. I miss you, C.
