“ Many prayers to all of you. Cliff has been our Christian counselor for over three years. We're deeply sadden by his passing. He was a man of God; my wife and I are at a loss for words and will miss him greatly. We know that he is with our Lord Jesus walking the streets of gold.

“ I met Professor Tulsie during my time at Grace University in the EXCEL program. He was one of my favorite professors while there and his warmth and kindness is what I remember most. He also laughed at my jokes which was nice lol. One of the things he taught me (and something that has stuck with me) was how to view psychology through a biblical lens. I wrestled with that initially, though I was passionate about pursuing a degree in psychology, because of the way that it had been taught to me in the past. I am so sad to hear he has passed away, but take comfort knowing that he is in a way better place than what this world has to offer. Prayers of peace and comfort to his wife, kids and the rest of his family. Thank you for sharing him with all of us.

“ Cliff and my husband Don did a lot together for GMI when Don was on staff there and Cliff was on the board. They traveled together to visit missionaries on various fields, so often Cliff would stay at our house when he came to Grand Rapids for meetings. Not quite sure why he did that because it seemed that something would go wrong almost every time he came! Once our hot water heater broke and the poor guy had to take an ice cold shower! Another time he came we lost power and he ended up sleeping on our couch next to the fireplace, with Don getting up every few hours to load up the fireplace with wood again! NOT a restful night! It became legendary! Until he finally got smart and quit coming! 😊 Tough times sometimes actually bring good memories. We loved Cliff and sure enjoyed his visits! He always endured gracefully and tried to see the humorous side of things. We are thankful for his friendship! Love, Don & Sandy TenHoeve
