“ My condolences are with you as you grieve the passing of Cody. At such times of sorrow we may ask, "Will I ever see or embrace my loved one again?" Jesus answers at John 11:11-44 saying "Lazarus! Come on out!" And he did.

*Patiently waiting for all those in the memorial tombs to hear Jesus' voice and come on out. May we all be there to welcome back all those sleeping in death to an earth that God originally purposed.-
Psalm 37:29; Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 65:21-23*

*Sincerely,

“ Since before I could remember, I always looked up to Cody. My big brother was my hero. I would always get jealous whenever he brought one of his girlfriends over. I would crawl right up on his lap to let them know, I'm my brother's little lady. I'm sure I wasn't very intimidating. Cody would pick on me from time to time, but he wouldn't let anybody else mess with me. He made sure that nobody messed with his little sister. I would always go straight to my brother if I ever needed to talk, and he would always listen. He would listen to anybody who would ever need to talk. He was such an amazing person. He had such a big heart, and would do anything for anybody. I love and miss my brother more than words could ever explain.

“ We all know Cody was an amazing young man. I would like to just say a lot can be said of that as he had amazing parents in Chris and Katie. It took 2 amazing people to create this amazing young man.

“ I am profoundly sorry for your loss. Cody and I regularly sat next to each other from Middle School to our senior year in High School. I was not always a happy person during my time in public school and I can tell you that Cody always made my day better. His laugh and smile were contagious! As I write this, I can see him with a twinkle in his eye, a smirk on his face, about to tell me a joke or something funny! I will never forget his energy, originality, humor, warmth and kindness. He improved my life during that time and I count myself lucky to have known him.

My Deepest Sympathies

“ It felt like my heart dropped to the bottom of my stomach when I got the sad news that Cody passed. He had a kind soul a big heart always a sweetheart to me what a gentleman he was! I went to school with cody he was one of my very first real friends when I started there in 8th grade he was kind of shy but I could tell he was a good person & he always was smiling at me making me laugh had good times with that kid and wish now we would of had more. I remember at our 8th grade graduation dance word got around that Cody had a pretty big crush on me & all night he wanted to ask me to dance but like I said he was shy I hope he knows I would of said yes then, would hug him now & give him the words that maybe he needed to hear from a friend. I am so sorry for your loss I hope he can see how much he was loved he will be greatly missed Rest in peace dear friend. I will be praying for your family.
