

Connie "Nick" Heinrich

October 4, 1946 - January 22, 2025

Nick (Connie Lynne Nickelson) Heinrich, the eldest and undoubtedly the wisest of five sisters born to Kenneth Gustav and Laura Mae (Lindholm) Nickelson in St. Paul, Minnesota, lived a life full of love, laughter, and plenty of "let's-solve-this" energy. Nick was always the first to offer advice, the last to hold back her opinions, and forever the one you could count on to "get it done"—whether it was rallying for Little League, organizing HOA meetings, or steering the school board toward a decision (maybe that's why Johnny can't read—just kidding!). Nick was a top achiever in the NSBA programs, represented Nebraska at state gatherings in New Orleans, and even participated in a Marine Corps-sponsored trip to San Diego, offering high school students a non-college option.

She joins her parents, sisters, and their spouses—Helen (Tom) Whyte, Linda (Larry) Cushing, Lorrie (Rick) Cox, brothers-in-law Richard Heinrich, William Heinrich, Terry Heinrich, sister-in-law Lisa (Heinrich) Bruns, and her niece Cassandra, along with sons Christopher and Korey. Nick leaves behind her husband Keith, sons Kevin (Amy) and Ken (Sarah), grandchildren Sydney, Skylar, Trevor, Gavin, Calvin, and Devin, as well as her sister Lisa (Pat) McDonald and sisters-in-law Mary (Rick) Yenzer and Virginia (Koch) Heinrich. She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family, with special mention of Ryan (Claire) Wright, Randi (Chad) Hamlett, Tyler (Morgan) McDonald, and Jordan McDonald.

In addition to her family, Nick's caregivers provided invaluable support during her journey, and the family extends heartfelt thanks to those who showed incredible compassion and care in her time of need. Their love, kindness, and dedication will always be remembered. Special thanks go to Cheryle Henderson (VieMed), Jane Harnack (Home Instead), Carmella Ehle (Private Home Helper), and Bobbie Kreikemeier APRN-NP (Amedisys) for their exceptional care and unwavering support.

In true Nick fashion, she made sure her send-off was as fabulous as her entrance. Her beloved Cancun family will forever feel the void left by her larger-than-life spirit—one that can only be filled with good times, laughter, and tequila (preferably with a splash of "what happens in Mexico, stays in Mexico"). Nick cherished her "River Rats," a group of friends who gathered regularly for mischief, laughter, and stories, and she also adored her junior high buddies, the Rusty Rowdy Beavers, with whom she shared countless adventures and inside jokes. In fact, add "what happens in Vegas, Cheyenne, South Dakota, Iowa and parts of Nebraska...."

When not organizing or solving problems, Nick could be found cheering on bull riders who couldn't sit still for eight seconds. Her fiery spirit, quick wit, and knack for making everything sound like the best idea ever will be sorely missed.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests bull riding tickets, HOA complaints, or tequila to continue Nick's legendary life in style.

If you wish to make a memorial donation, please consider one of the following programs that were especially dear to her:

- LEAP For a Cure
- National Jewish Hospital – Infectious Disease: Dr. Kasperbauer
- Salvation Army
- Nebraska Humane Society: Foster Program
- HETRA

But more than anything, raise a glass or share a story in her honor. She wouldn't have it any other way.

“ Remembering the frustration of being the older sister of an RR Beaver and being allowed to join them in Cancun for a marvelous adventure. I was honored. I have been blessed in lots of ways during my life. One of the true blessings was a friend named Connie or Nick depending on the seriousness of the moment. Love Always and Always thankful to call her a friend.

“ Nick was the best. We were neighbors and had some good times on the HOA board together. She definitely stood up and fought for what she believed in. She always made me laugh and would email me the best jokes. The first time I met Nick, she showed me her tattoo and I knew we would be lifelong friends. I still have the picture of her tattoo and laugh every time I think about it. She loved her family and especially her grandkids. Sending thoughts and prayers to the family. 🙏🙏🙏

“ A unique husband and wife team, Nick (Connie) the hub of the family wheel. She was never at a loss for words and when ever she engaged in conversation it was a passion for what she stated. Nick was grounded in the absolute of right and wrong and never retreated to support right. Your soul has a special place in heaven. I cherished the friendship. Cliff Janda

“ I'm so sorry to hear this.
Nick was the wittiest person I've ever known.
I worked under her when she was with Teeters Floral.
Always looked forward to seeing her.
We seemed to have so many things in common.
From sisters w/ the same name, to having sisters trips.
I had suspicion that Nick's health was failing, but she would never say why. Guess I'll never know.
I'm sorry for your loss. She will leave a big void in the family.....but ohhhh, the memories.
