“ I met Craig my freshman year of college in Sioux Falls ( even though I don't think I called him by his real name once - there were so many nicknames for him ). We never kept in touch after he left USF and went to join the Marines, but here a couple things I remember when I think about him. He was always laughing, joking, or giving us girls a hard time. He was 100% genuine and would have done anything for any of us which makes sense why he chose to serve our country. Forever a part of the Coo Fam. May god hold Craig & his family right now.

“ Our family shares in the loss of Craig. We remember him from the time we moved into the neighborhood when he was a young boy. We watched him grow up into a fine young man. He was always so nice to our kids. We are heartbroken to say the least. A young vibrant person with so much to offer. He rests now in God’s hands and joins his mom. Our prayers and condolences to the family.
