“ Always enjoyed seeing Dale which was usually in Nashville Tn. when all of us would meet with Brenda. Gone to soon but he will always be with us. May God Bless.

“ I guess I was so busy helping Scott bury his life mate I never had an opportunity to leave a condolence. It's been a bit over 3 years now since Dale left this earthly plane; I still can't believe he's gone. Scott has put a beautiful headstone on his gravesite! I'm still keeping up on the website I designed, in Dale's memory. www.bygonetimes.weebly.com I've posted this link so I can share things Scott has enshrined to me since Dale's death; I feel somewhat like the 'keeper of the gate'!

“ Dear Scott, I was very sorry to hear of Dale's sudden death. I had the opportunity to run into him a few months back. While I no longer live in Valley, I look back gratefully for both you and Dale and your life at St. Mark's. In fact, that day you first came to our church and asked the question posed in Acts 8 about what you needed to do to be baptized remains one of the highlights of my 40 years of ministry. God's power, love and care in the time ahead. Dale impressed me as an extremely kind and good man. I trust God richly provides now for his Spirit. One possible friend in the church and community that I might recommend is Keith Jansen who runs the local flower shop. His wife died a few years back, and Keith was a part of the grief recovery group I once ran at St. Mark's. Keith recently told me, he is seeking friends in the community, and in God's grace, if you need someone to visit with, he might be one who could help. God's love and care, Rev. Clay Skurdahl
