“ *Deb, was a good person, she always thought of others, she shared her food when you brought in so staff had a good meal. She was so excited to be planning her parents 50 Wedding Celebration. She was very proud of them.
Deb, will always be remember to me and to others and will be missed....*

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your Deb. She was honestly one of my favorite people on this planet and I was always excited to work with her anytime I was assigned on a blood drive with her. So many of us really adored her and her loss is huge for all that knew and loved her and my prayers are with her son, parents, grandparents, family and friends.
