

Denise Irene Bastemeyer

December 12, 1952 - February 24, 2018

Denise Irene Woodworth Bastemeyer was born on December 12, 1952 in Omaha, Nebraska to William and Dolores (Doescher) Woodworth. She grew up in Omaha where she attended Hillside grade school and graduated from Omaha Westside High School in 1970. As a young girl, Denise had an early interest in cosmetology and interior design and was the owner of a smokin' hot Camero, which drew the attention of many young men.

Denise married Donald Bastemeyer on July 27, 1970 in Omaha, Nebraska and they were blessed with two daughters: Kelly and Jill. Denise and Don have always made their home in Omaha.

Denise worked as a bookkeeper in several local retail businesses including the Backyard Shop, Westlake Hardware, McKees and Kelly's Carpet. She loved her yard work, flowers and home decorating, often coming home with ideas from local "Model Homes" and enjoyed watching Dancing with the Stars and Hallmark movies. Denise enjoyed macramé, sewing and the companionship of her Yorkies. She was a true animal lover, feeding the birds and squirrels and always stopping to rescue a lost dog and work until she found their owner. Denise was tenacious, involved and loved to talk on the phone. She savored a good hamburger, a sweet, filled donut, a hot cup of coffee and dinner out at La Casa's Pizza.

Denise passed away on Saturday, February 24, 2018 at the Methodist Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska at the age of 65 years, 2 months and 12 days. She was preceded in death by her father Bill and husband Donald. She was survived by daughters and sons-in-law Kelly and Michael Alvano and Jill and Josh Nosky all of Omaha; grandchildren Tristan Alvano and Jemma Nosky; mother Dolores Woodworth of Omaha; Sister Sheri (Kevin) Sulley of Omaha;
