Dennis Alton Ueckert was born on October 22, 1946 in Grand Island, Nebraska to Elroy and Wilma (Shafer) Ueckert. He grew up in the Valley area, attending King Lake grade school and graduating from Valley High School in 1965. As a young boy, Dennis was active in the Boy Scouts and played football. Dennis married Bonny Trotter in Elkhorn, Nebraska on November 18, 1972 and they made their home in Elkhorn.

Dennis worked as a machinist at the Vickers Corporation for over 30 years and after his "retirement", he worked another ten years for the Oil Gear company. He loved history and studied the Family Tree. Dennis enjoyed the family New Years Eve parties and family reunions. He and Bonny enjoyed trips to Las Vegas and were avid Husker fans. Dennis crossed off several bucket list items by attending a Nebraska Volleyball game and visiting the Grand Ole Opry. He loved to watch Jeopardy and refused to be interrupted.
