“ I am so very sorry for your loss Katie. It has been an honor to serve you both during his end of life journey and to learn how very proud he was to have you as his daughter. May God fill you daily with His comfort and peace in the coming days.

Debi Mitchell-Tighe - February 12, 2018 at 04:46 PM

“ I offer my deepest sympathies to Dennis' family. Although we've not had much communication over the years, except for annual Christmas cards and letters, I'll always remember what a generous and loyal friend and valued colleague Dennis was, both as a scouting friend and when we worked together at BCBS. May the Lord be with you during this difficult time.
