

Dolores "Dolly" Eleanor Welshiemer

November 5, 1935 - March 2, 2024

Dolores "Dolly" Welshiemer was born on November 5, 1935 in Raton, New Mexico to Octaviano and Elizabeth (Trujillo) Ulibarri. After graduating high school from Raton High School in 1954, she went on to study at New Mexico Highlands University. Dolly married Bob Welshiemer on December 28, 1954 at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Raton, NM. From this union four boys were born: Robert, Randy, Ron, and Rick. They raised their family in Buena Park, California. Dolly loved reading, sewing, spending time at the beach, dancing to oldies, and shopping.

Some of Dolly's proudest moments were the day she married Bob and the birth of her children. She was extremely hard-working and family oriented; she managed to keep a tidy home, provided home cooked meals for her family, was always very well put together and dressed to the nines, all while working alongside her husband as an administrative assistant. Dolly had a strong faith and was a devout Catholic, often taking Communion to others who were unable to receive it at church.

When Dolly wasn't busy at home or work, she relaxed by reading, dining at Carrabba's, and enjoying a glass of red wine. Dolly especially loved to spend time with her grandchildren. One memory the grandkids will always cherish is Grandma letting them drink grape juice in wine glasses. This is a simple example of how classy of a lady Dolly truly was. Dolly prided herself on being fashionable and dressing properly. One of her biggest pet peeves was ugly celebrity fashion.

Dolly is preceded in death by her loving husband, Bob; parents, Octaviano and Lita; sons, Bobby and Randy; grandson, Robert Welshiemer; and sisters, Viola Schammel and Josephine Sandavol. She is survived by her sons, Ron and Rick; grandchildren: Wendie Hausman, Ronny Weshiemer, Mistie Neill, Randy Welshiemer, Ricky Welshiemer, Austin Welshiemer, and Sheila Welshiemer; 10 great grandchildren; brothers, Abe and Ervin Ulibarri; cats, Babe and Killer Baby; and dog, Pasquale.
