

Dolores Jeanette Miller

August 17, 1934 - August 26, 2008

Dolores “Dodie” Jeanette (Wildrick) Miller was born August 17, 1934 in Omaha, Nebraska to Freeman and Irene (Sutliff) Wildrick. Dodie grew up on Arbor Street in South Omaha. As a young girl, Dodie enjoyed sewing, ice skating, shopping, going to the movies, and spending time with family and friends. Dodie graduated from Omaha Tech High School in 1952.

Dodie married William E. Miller on February 21, 1954 in Omaha, Nebraska, and to this union three children were born; William Jr., Laura, and Scott. Dodie lived most of her life in Omaha, until later moving to Elkhorn. William preceded Dodie in death in 1984.

Before she was married, Dodie worked for the telephone company. She then went on to work as a cook for the Elkhorn Public Schools for over 20 years. Dodie enjoyed sewing, doing crossword puzzles, shopping and eating out with friends and family, and even took part in several bowling leagues after moving to Elkhorn. Dodie and Laurie greatly appreciated the love and support shown to them by their Gateway neighbors. Dodie’s family was the most important thing to her, and she especially loved spending holidays with all her extended family. She deeply loved all her family, and knowing she is now at peace is a comfort to them.

Dodie passed away at Methodist Hospital in Omaha on August 26, 2008 at the age of 74 years and 9 days. She was preceded in death by her parents Freeman and Irene, step parents, husband Bill, and brother George Wildrick. Dodie is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law; Bill and Angie Miller, and Scott and Sheron Miller of Omaha, and daughter Laurie Miller of Elkhorn, 1 brother-in-law, 3 sisters-in-law, and many nieces and nephews.
