“ The picture of “Uncle Bud”, Donald Uleman, brings back wonderful childhood memories. Born in 1952, so being young, in the late 1950s early 1960s Uncle Bud and my Aunt Lucille, would fly up to Callaway Nebraska to visit. A community of slightly less than 400 population at that time. He would give my brothers and I airplane rides. I remember him landing on the alfalfa field and taxiing off The alfalfa field. A little bumpy. 😊. Those were huge events and wonderful memories.

I also remember when he and Aunt Lucille lived in the farmhouse and had black, white collie, named Fanny. Good memories.

I can remember, The first time they came to Callaway after Jeffrey was born. Jeff was just a baby.

I have the same memories of the first time they brought Beth up to Callaway. Brand new baby.

Later, when they lived in Keystone, and he's building a house across the street from where he and Aunt Lucille lived. I got up on the roof, yes on the roof. He let me hammer and some nails.

Many good childhood memories. Uncle Bud was a part of. Thank you Uncle Bud for so many memories. God be with you 🙏 RIP

My Condolences to Jeff and Beth if they are still living. Don built our home on the corner of 86th and Pratt St in Keystone. Us boys would ride mini bikes and Jeff Uleman his Go Cart in the empty lot from the old Berts store.

Later in life when Lucille still lived in Keystone, I installed Vinyl siding on that home that Don Uleman built.
