“ Hello Lynette. This is your best man at your wedding. I moved to Texas 10 years ago. Doug was my best friend for many years. We had our first apartment together on Park Ave in Omaha. I've tried so many times to call and find you guys. Today I got a very sad call from Omaha from a mutual friend. I'm knocked out even though I haven't talk to either one of you for years. I'll remember road trips to Kearny State college to see you and your roommate. I'll remember how many times Doug got me in to fights. Lol. How fast he drove down my street. Heck, how fast he drove period. Gotta love those Chrysler muscle cars his dad got him.

It's really to bad that I lost track of you both. I shed many tears tonight for an unbelievable best friend. He was one of a kind. I saw him every day for many years. I'm mad at myself for loosing track. I always thought there'd be time. Doug, I've thought of you frequently and know you had my back every time we met. Doug I know you were one of the toughest dudes in the big O you were also the kind of guy that would jump in front of a bullet to save a friend.

Lynette, I'm dying to talk to you. This news hit me hard tonight. Tim Pedersen

*You are my brother and I could not have chosen a better one.
We shared our dreams, plans and some secrets too!
All our memories we shared are what bonds me now to you.
We have a love shared by our family that will never fade away.*

Doug was a “man’s-man”, gruff on the outside but soft as butter on the inside. He was an incredible partner for my sister.

Doug, Lynne and I were so close and we sometimes referred ourselves as the, 3-Amigos. We had so many good times, lots and lots of laughs together. Vacations and time spent in Hawaii, Cancun, Las Vegas, Oregon and even Nebraska.

This is not the end brother, you’ve just walked ahead, we will join you one day and party like no tomorrow!

Rest in peace my brother....
