“ Drew and I got along well in high school. He was so kind and driven in class and sports. When my parents organized my graduation party, it was on Memorial Day weekend of all days, so not everyone I invited stopped by. However, among the few who did was Drew, and that is a memory I've cherished to this day.

What happened to Drew left me gutted for days. After surviving multiple attempts, I know precisely how it feels to be over the edge, like it's eating you alive. My heart goes out to his family and friends.

RIP Drew.

“ Ronnie, wife and family:

I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. Our children are the loves of our life and I can not imagine the sorrow you and your family must be enduring. My prayers and thoughts are with you and family. To his twin sister your brother is part of you and he would I am sure want you to heal. Hard to find the words but pray and be strong. I have twin boys and the closeness is hard for people to really know. Your loss is great
