

Dylan Isaiah Johnson

May 6, 1997 - September 3, 2014

Dylan Isaiah Johnson was born on May 6, 1997 in Chico, California to Todd Johnson and Gazelle (Bills) Johnson. He grew up in Elkhorn where he attended St. Patrick's Catholic grade school and Mount Michael Benedictine High School. Dylan enjoyed reading, video games, football, bocce ball, Legion and board games. He loved joking and pranks with friends, bro-time, movie commentating and food challenges.

Dylan loved working at Hy-Vee in general merchandising and as a checker. He will be remembered as a hardworking, friendly, quirky jokester who had a tremendous desire to serve and help others. Dylan had a great big smile, was funny, loyal, dedicated and always reverent. He was proud of his academic achievements and loved his service work. Dylan enjoyed rock and alternative music, Harry Potter movies, anime, fanfiction, "chillaxing" with friends and watching TV shows with his family. He looked forward to pizza, burgers and lamb chops; root beer, sprite and smoothies; and dinner out at Boyd and Charlie's. His heart speaks out to all and his feelings are well expressed through his familiar greeting with his close cousin Jack Gordon: "One day my wave will find you".

Dylan passed away on Wednesday, September 3, 2014 in Elkhorn, Nebraska at the age of 17 years, 3 months and 28 days. He is survived by his parents Todd Johnson and Gazelle Johnson of Elkhorn; sister Amber and brother Jake both of Elkhorn; grandparents Nathan and Linda Bills of Elkhorn and John and Kathy Johnson of Glendale, AZ; and great grandmother Jennifer Cobb of Sebastopol, CA.
