

Edward Vincent Dwyer

May 3, 1933 - May 29, 2026

Edward Vincent Dwyer, age 93 of Omaha, Nebraska, passed away on May 29 at Brookestone in Papillion. Ed was born on May 3, 1933, in Brooklyn, NY, to Edward and Loretta (Hawkins). Ed joined the U.S. Air Force following high school graduation. He met Ardyce Hulsebusch of Pender, NE, while stationed at Ellsworth AFB, SD. They married on June 16, 1956. Ed served 21 years in the Air Force, and lived with his family in Germany, South Carolina, South Dakota, and California, retiring as a Master Sargent in 1974. He served as a gunner on a B-52 and was very proud of serving his country. He subsequently moved his family of four to Lincoln, NE, where he joined the U.S. Post Office as a mail carrier, retiring in 1994.

Ed and Ardyce were among the founding members of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Lincoln. They loved traveling the country to visit friends from their various Air Force assignments. In 2012, they moved to Omaha to be closer to family. Ed's great joy was his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, attending countless birthday parties, activities, and sporting events. Many hours were spent in their pool enjoying visits from family near and far. He also enjoyed building model airplanes.

Ed is survived by his daughter, Kathy Volkman (David), Omaha; daughter-in-law Denise Dwyer (Daniel), Keller, TX; and sister-in-law Gloria Dwyer (Robert), Princeton Junction, NJ. He has eight grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren, two of whom will be born this year.

He was preceded in death by his wife Ardyce, son Daniel Dwyer, parents Edward and Loretta Dwyer, brother Robert Dwyer, in-laws William and Elsie Hulsebusch, brother-in-law William Hulsebusch, Jr. and sister-in-law Rose Hulsebusch.
