“ Wow where do I begin. Ed and I have had a lot of good times and great memories. Playing scrabble with Carol and Chuck drinking a few beers but most of all a lot of love and laughter. This world lost a truly kind hearted man for no reason. I love you all and Ed I will never forget our time together and my time with Carol and Chuck. You are all amazing.

“ I worked with Ed at Guitar's & Cadillacs but he was more than a manager, he was a friend. Ed liked to push the new wait staff to see if they had the grit to make it in the night club business. While many of those girls ended up crying, Ed was unprepared for a spunky red-head who would give it right back to him. We were friends from that night on. Thanks for teaching me about calling orders, tricks for remembering brand and drink names, how to drink with the "big boys", being cash OCD (must be faced and sequential) and all the other lessons. Above all thank you for your friendship, entertainment and always being in my corner. You will be missed!
