Edward Charles Nath was born on August 21, 1935 in Omaha, Nebraska to Emil and Mary (Kungl) Nath. He grew up in Omaha where he attended Ashland Park grade school and graduated from Omaha South High School in 1953. As a young boy, Ed enjoyed hunting and fishing. Ed married Nancy Jourdan on July 3, 1954 at Zion Lutheran Church in Omaha, Nebraska and they were blessed with four children: Pam, Penny, Patty and Clay. Ed worked at Wilson Packing, Flynn Paving and Pamida before retiring in 2000. He continued to hunt and fish and truly enjoyed his time at the family cabin near Tekamah. Ed enjoyed tying flies, feeding the birds and squirrels and tinkering on anything with a motor. He was a generous, funny man who loved his children. Ed enjoyed neck bones, sauerkraut and dumplings, a hot cup of coffee and dinner out at the Leavenworth Street Café.
