“ I know this is a very difficult time for the family. Something that has always given me comfort is a scripture at Revelation 21:4, it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I sincerely hope this brings you some comfort.

“ Hi Terry and Michelle: We are saddened to hear of the passing of lovely Liz. I remember her from the WWCG in Kitchener, Ontario. Terry and Liz were instrumental in my teen years and were a wonderful pastoral couple I learned so much from. The De Vlught family wishes to send you our deepest sympathy. I now have been married for 15 years and have a wonderful husband, Gerry and 2 lovely boys - Ben and James. God Bless you and Michelle.

“ Terry and Michelle...so sorry to hear the news. Knowing you guys and all the experiences we had together while we were in Omaha remain such fond memories. Liz was such a great person, always able to brighten up any moment. Too little time, too little time - but we look forward to when time won't be a hindrance. Michelle, ask your dad if he remembers the time he was assembling your first bicycle and was having trouble with one of the pedals...

“ Dear Terry, Michelle and Family of Liz, Barb and I were very fond of both Liz and Terry. Our daughters considered them like uncle and aunt when we served in Canada in the ministry together. We were shocked to hear of Liz's death and send our heartfelt thoughts and prayers for comfort and peace in this time of grief. With love, Gary and Barb Antion

“ We are sad to hear of Elizabeth's death. Our daughter, Jill, took piano lessons from "Miss Liz" for years. Jill loved time at your house as Jill would play with that little white dog and Miss Liz and Jill would chat and share the piano bench. I would sit in the twirly chairs and listen in on the fun. Jill still has a recital picture of Miss Liz in her room. Thank you for sharing her with us.

“ So sorry for your loss, many years have past since you were all in Kitchener (13 mulberry lane)... a new family. Your mom was so excited to have a daughter. Your Dad baptized me... "seek first kingdom"... "then make fit in the field" ... "then build house" God loves us all, and has a plan, a glorious plan and he loves us. It looks like (your Mom, and your Dad's wife) has "passed her training" God loves all of you and is with you even now, may his strength keep you both safe and strong in this difficult time and beyond. The glory of God's kingdom will be revealed and the sufferings of this world will be forgotten. Eternal life, filled with love. A few years ago we got dressed up in fancy clothes and my grandson leaned over and said "Grandpa it feels like I past my training" I believe your wife and mother has passed her training, and you will see her again and the pain of the loss you are feeling now will disappear. May God grant you strength and courage during this difficult time. Ron “ Terry and Family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss of Liz. I have so many memories of her, each one starting and ending with her kindness and selflessness. Euker parties in your basement, YOU activities, choir practice, special music, the day we all got to meet your daughter and the joy on both of your faces! She was a truly wonderful woman and the world is a little less today without her in it. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ So sorry to hear about your loss. Death is so hard to take and God knows this and one day soon he is going to get rid of death forever because he care for us so as 1 Corinthians 15:54 he will get rid of death forever, he will swallowed it up. Please find comfort in this fact.
