

Erik Michael Getsfred

August 9, 1978 - October 14, 2023

Erik was known for being hard-working, kind, genuine and loving. Anyone whoever met him loved him, and respected him. He was an amazing father, husband, son, brother, and friend.

He was so generous and kind. His heart was so pure and full of love. I'm happy to know whole heartedly that Erik loved his family unconditionally. He loved his beautiful children and was so proud of them and who they are. He loved traveling with them and experiencing life with them all. The traditions that we have will live on through him, we know he will always be right by our sides. We share so many funny movie and tv quotes that I will continue to cherish. My Erik will forever be loved and will never ever be forgotten.

Come Honor Erik with his family and friends with A Celebration of Lfe gathering on Saturday, November 18th from 1:00 - 4:00pm at Venue 779, Waterloo, NE 68069.

“ Fred's Peds - there are way toooooooo many memories for just one here. All I can say is those memories were with a pal that has one of the kindest hearts I've ever met and man could he make us laugh. It didn't matter if he was pulling his shirt up in the middle of a crowd or smacking the cooler "Whittteeeeeeee" telling her to throw him another zima.

As we all "grew up", Fred carried that passion to his wife Angie and the kids. He was so proud of his family. Even though we didn't see each other or chat frequently as life rolls on, whenever we would catch up he always had a story about teaching the kids to ski, play sports, go to the dance, dress for Halloween, etc. He would even tease me that his 3 year old would smoke me on the mountain - absolutely true!

When chatting about his love for Angie, he had the exact same glow. Throughout all these years, we would hang out and listen to tunes - he always found a way to get one of their love songs on (Tim McGraw and Faith Hill). Angie will always be Fred's true love.

It's impossible to put words to someone who made your day whenever you saw him - but that is Fred.

Yes Fred I can finally admit - you did beat me in the kicking contest out front Bryan elementary that fine high school night.

Until we get our rematch - miss you pal!
