“ Gene was my cousin on the Cahoy side. My best memories were when I would spend summers back on the family farm, and we were teenagers. The family would gather on the farm after church on Sundays. I loved spending time with my cousins. Gene and I reconnected in recent years. I am so grateful for the phone conversations we had. To Gene's family and friends, I am so sorry for our loss. God bless you. Debbie Austin

“ Gene was a cousin and a good friend. He was a great athlete. Enjoyed watching him play sports. With Gene George Kenzy and Craig Stinson they had an awesome Junior Legion team in Colome. You did well my friend

“ A long, long time ago, Doug Stenson and myself coached a summer little league team in Colome made up of kids probably 9 or 10 years old. Gene was on that team and I will never forget how astonishing good he was even at that young of age. As he got older, he got better and better in every sport that he played. Colome has had many good athletes over the years. I would say, and there would not be much disagreement, that he probably was the best athlete to come out of Colome. Years later when I was coaching my sons, I ran into a coach at Yankton College. Knowing I was from Colome, he asked me if I knew Gene. He said that Gene was the best athlete he had ever coached in 40 years of college coaching. What a talented individual he was. My sympathies to his family. Terry Pechota.

“ My sister and I always went t Martin and Bernice Cahoy’s farm for our summers. Even before that Gene and Dave were such pain. Bugging us girls. Hitting us girls. I m sure u know where I m going with this. Gene always came over t grandma’s t have me wash his hair in kitchen sink cause I used my nails. I haven’t seen him much during later years but he is my cuz. I love him dearly. He will b greatly missed. Love ya cuz

“ My family (David and Dolores London) visited my grandparents, Martin and Martha London, at least once a year when we would travel to Colome, So. Dak. and spend the weekend. We were almost always able to see all of our cousins, including Gene who at that time was a great athlete and someone I really looked up to as well as to his brother, Dave. I was always in awe over his accomplishments and what I remember is that at one point he was one of the best basketball players in the state of South Dakota. There was one time Gene took my twin brother Damon and I to the drive-in in Winner, and I distinctly remember that night as we may have had some beverages we weren't old enough to drink. My dad also took us to watch several state baseball tournaments Gene and Dave played in. We didn't get to spend a lot of time with Gene mostly because he was a little older than us and had far better things to do than hang with us, but each moment we had with him and the other cousins was memorable. My dad took quite a bit of photos and 8mm film of our trips to Colome and I know Gene is in some of them. I do not recall ever meeting any of his family. Rest in peace my dear cousin. Life is better now for you.
