

Dr. Fred Eldon Anderson

April 6, 1934 - January 25, 2023

Anderson, Dr. Fred Eldon

April 6, 1934 - January 25, 2023

Fred is survived by sons: Kerry (Janet), and Bret (Ingra) Anderson; step-children: Stephen (Kristi) Shaw, Stephanie (Tom) Peterson; grandchildren: Max (Katie) Anderson, Ethan (Kia Jones) Anderson, Justin (Natalie) Shaw, James (Paige Landholm) Peterson, Tyler Shaw, Michael (Lauren) Peterson and two great-granddaughters. He is also survived by siblings: Fran Anderson, Lois Holmberg and Jon Anderson.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Mary (Appleby Shaw) Anderson; first wife and mother of his children, Wanda (Eikenbary Anderson) Stuck; brother, Delmar Anderson; and parents, Roy and Mamie (Martinson) Anderson.

Fred earned an Associate in Arts from North Park College, a Bachelor of Science in Education from the University of Nebraska, a Master of Science from the University of Omaha (now UNO), and a Doctorate of Education from the University of Nebraska.

He served in the United States Army and was stationed as a radio announcer in Pusan during the Korean War. He then began his education career with Omaha Public Schools in 1960, serving 33 years, most of which as the District

Coordinator of Media in a department he created--the West Maple Media Technology Center--where his team provided resources for teachers.

Camping, fishing, dancing, motorcycle touring and tinkering in his tractor shed were some of Fred's favorite pastimes.

CELEBRATION of LIFE: Friday, February 17th, 2 PM at Second Unitarian Church of Omaha, 3012 S 119th St., Omaha, NE. Memorials are suggested to Donate.NebraskaPublicMedia.org.

Military Honors will be conducted by members of the United States Army.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

FEB 17. 2:00 PM (CT)

Second Unitarian Church of Omaha
3012 South 119th Street
Omaha, NE