We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It breaks our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

The stars are a little dimmer tonight,
Without the glimmer of your light—
The special glimmer so near me,
Like a shooting star streaked from the sky.

I don't see stars and wish you,
But better stars and wish you,
So close and so far behind my eyes,
I hope you have heard and see.

Another long and lovely night, (Don't be another with light and thought over head) I have dreams,
I wish you were and that I have heard
