“ Rhonda, I doubt you remember meeting me, but I worked with George for many years in his role as Chemistry Instructor at Clarkson. I am the Education Coordinator with the University of Nebraska. My job at the time was to help get Clarkson, Methodist and the Medical Center 'on the same page'. George was always a delight to work with. He was very courteous and polite to others, while still being able to make his point. He was a very classy gentleman who will be greatly missed. My condolences to you and your family.
